

01 BIO

Stephen Ratner is a commercial, privacy, and product attorney with experience advising AI and software companies on enterprise contracting, data use, technology transactions, and operational legal strategy. His background spans legal roles at an AI video company and an adtech company, venture law, and a former role as Deputy Press Secretary to the U.S. Attorney General at the Department of Justice. At Synthesia he negotiated complex commercial and data agreements and worked on generative AI, model training, and privacy law. He also worked in legal-technology product management at Remote.com. Earlier roles include venture law at Gunderson Dettmer, a White House communications internship, and campaign work on a highly contested 2014 Florida gubernatorial race. He holds a J.D. from Georgetown Law and the CIPP/E privacy certification, and is licensed to practice law in New York, the District of Columbia, and Arizona.

02 ADMITTED

New York · Washington, D.C. · Arizona

03 EDUCATION

Georgetown Law · J.D.
Emory University · B.A., summa cum laude

04 CERTIFICATIONS

Certified Information Privacy Professional/Europe (CIPP/E)

05 TOPICS

- Political campaign work
- Political commentary
- Taxation of transportation technology
- Student hardship and persistence
- Generative AI and model training
- Federal immigration and visa law
- Federal government communications
- Legal commentary on AI and AI laws
- Equity compensation and startup law
- Privacy and data protection
- Enterprise contracting
- Workplace discrimination

06 PRESS AND SPEAKING

For press and speaking inquiries, send Stephen a direct message on LinkedIn.

<https://www.linkedin.com/in/stephenratner/>

Stephen is not authorized to speak on behalf of his current employer and intends to coordinate any requests in accordance with applicable policies.